

Friends of Cheltenham and Regional Cemeteries Inc.

Society's fascination with centenarians is enduring and buried in Melbourne's historic Cheltenham Pioneer Cemetery (Charman Road) are 28 persons who reached the grand old age of 100...plus those who just missed out! Written by Travis M. Sellers, The Centenarians: Life's Quiet Sunset is the first book in the Remembering Them series published by the Friends of Cheltenham and Regional Cemeteries Inc. For these hale and hearty centenarians, their longevity is worth remembering...

The A5-sized book comprises 172 pages in colour and 48,000 words with an index of over 800 names. It is a rich source of genealogical information containing birth, death and marriage records, burial details, wedding notices, emigration and shipping records, death and obituary notices, probate records, census details, electoral rolls, military service records, newspaper articles and publications, as well as extracts from the Victorian Government and Police gazettes.

A limited edition second print run, each book is individually numbered. Order your copy today!
